

100% LONDON

Whether in the fields of fashion or design, London has a reputation for highlighting original thinking and clever concepts. These pieces from recent exhibitions prove that when it comes to talent – from established names to new graduates – London has it all WORDS KAREN McCARTNEY

shimashi
www.shimashi.com

3 In full bloom
3. The porcelain leaves of Jeremy Cole's 'Aloe Blossom' pendant light are now available in a metallic finish.
Street spirit
4. People Will Always Need Plates' range of ceramic tableware is inspired by typical London streetscapes.
Office recycling
5. Ryan Frank's 'Lower Slot' stool and 'Bourkes Luck' chair for Imade are made from waste wood salvaged from office furniture. →

Light reading

1. The 'Lux Libris' reading lamp by Seen The Light turns itself off when a book is placed on it.
On the map
2. Claire Brewster uses discarded objects to create delicate artwork – Arctic Jay was made from an old atlas.

arctic jay 2006
cut page from atlas, pins, foam board, box frame 54 cm

